FYSA...Obviously the OPP will have to pivot to deal with this... which will effect all of our efforts.

Deputy,

Further to our discussion, I met with RCMP Supt. Phil Lue and advised of the following:

1. Updated on the developments in Windsor and the mobilization underway. OPP Supt. Earley is the MIC. Dynamics in Windsor is very different and mobilization underway from POU perspective to address.
2. Provincial priority at this time is Windsor given the provincial and national impacts. Supt. Lue will de-conflict resource/POU request with his Command.

As discussed we will continue to work on staffing our support for the OPS Maintenance Model while considering and de-conflicting what is happening at the Provincial and National Level. Concurrently and as per our discussions with Chief Sloly, a part of our group is actively working on a contingency plan that is supported by the intelligence picture with a goal of obtaining buy in from the Chief of Police.

One additional consideration – this has become a provincial issue requiring a provincial response; any consideration to having a provincial unified command, with commands for events in other locations reporting into, coordinated by a unified command?
